★ STAR SIGNALS ★

I'M A TRAVELIN' MAN!

 Every year, groups of dedicated comic book fans gather together at special conventions across the country to celebrate the joy of reading and collecting comic books. Since this year is the 25th Anniversary of Marvel Comics, Stan "The Man" Lee (he's the guy who started it all), Jim "Trouble" Shooter (the editor in chief of Marvel Comics), "Amiable" Archie Goodwin (he runs Epic Comics), Sid "The Kid" Jacobson (you haven't been reading this column regularly if you don't know who he is by now) and I decided to celebrate this momentous occasion at a few of the very biggest comic conventions.

In the past few weeks, I've been to Chicago (loved the pizza!), Atlanta (loved the people!), and San Diego (loved the beach!). Marvel Comics held a special anniversary/birthday party at each of these conventions. There was plenty of food, music and dancing till dawn! Of course, the highlight of each party was when our official party hostess, "Lovable" Lynn Cohen (who usually runs the editorial administration center whenever she's not busy convention-hopping), wheeled in the giant birthday cake. Talk about a sight to remember! Large enough to feed thousands, it would always have twenty-five blazing candles and a big icing image of a certain familiar web-slinger! (Nope, it wasn't Peter Parker. His turn will come in twenty-three and a half years when Star celebrates its anniversary.)

A fine time was had by all! I wish you could have been there!

C'MON DOWN!

 Have you ever been to a comic book convention? They're actually a lot of fun. There's one being held on almost every weekend of the year in some part of the country. You can usually find out about local conventions by asking at your favorite neighborhood comic book shop. Conventions also advertise in Marvel and Star Comics, and on television.

I always recommend that you travel with a group of your friends. You'll have a lot more fun if you have someone to share it with.

Conventions are a great place to find old comics that you're missing from your collections. Old comics can sometimes be pretty expensive, but you can find bargains if you hunt hard enough.

You'll also get a chance to see tons of original artwork, to learn what's coming up in your favorite comic books, and to meet your favorite comic book professionals face to face.

That's the best part as far as I'm concerned. You and I finally get a chance to meet each other, to shake hands, and to ask each other questions. It's great! You can make some very special friends at a comic book convention.

If you ever do go to a convention that I'm attending, please stop by and say hello. I'd really like to meet you.

Thanks for being there,

Tom D.

LAURA HITCHCOCK
ASSISTANT EDITOR

c/o S.T.A.R. COMICS, 387 PARK AVE. SOUTH, N.Y.C., N.Y. 10016

Dear S.T.A.R.,

CARE BEARS #5, "The Very First Care Bear," was great! Howard Post's drawings were fantastic. The story was interesting and fun. Noble Heart Horse and True Heart Bear were great. They're my favorite characters. I didn't even know about them before.

I never collected comics, but when my brother urged me to read one, I knew it would be worth it. Now I'd like to know how to get CARE BEARS #1, 2, 3, and 4.

Will the CARE BEAR COUSINS be in more issues or stay in the Forest of Feelings?

Suh-Hen Yang
Los Gatos, CA

Thanks for writing! We're always glad to hear from fans who care about comics... as well as Bears! To get back issues of CARE BEARS, check with your local comics dealer. If he or she doesn't have what you want, try one of the mail-order companies specializing in back issues. They often advertise in comic books, but if you have trouble finding one, ask your comics dealer for help.

Last we heard, Suh-Hen, the CARE BEARS had no plans to visit their cousins in the Forest of Feelings. But don't give up hope. Your letter points up another important reason why we love to hear from readers. Knowing which characters and adventures are your favorites helps us arrange exactly the kind of CARE BEARS adventures you love most. So write to us. Then stay tuned and see what happens!

Dear S.T.A.R.,

I have a few questions and comments. Why don't you put "Care Bears: The Movie" on TV, on channel WSAZ-3, instead of in the movies? Why don't you make the land of CARE BEARS come true and name it "Care Bear Land"?

I really like your comics and I hope they keep coming and coming. I found out about CARE BEARS comics from my little cousin and that's when I started buying them.

Braiza Hardin
Ashland, KY

It's unlikely the CARE BEARS movie will be on your local TV soon, since that would mean only people in Kentucky could see the movie. If you're convinced it's a good idea, Braiza, you could try writing directly to WSAZ station management.

But don't despair! Here's one bit of good news: CARE BEARS will have their own Saturday morning TV show this fall! Look in your newspaper for listings.

Dear CARE BEARS,

I now have all six issues of your magazine, and I think they're fabulous! I can't wait for the TV show to come out this fall!

I was wondering, since TOP DOG's team-ups have been so successful, why don't you team up other STAR members as well? I would like to see team-ups between the EWOKS, TOP DOG, HEATHCLIFF, and the POPPLES.

By the way, I've drawn some new CARE BEARS for you and written a little bit about them. I hope you will use them in future adventures.

That's all I have to say, except keep up the fun-tastic work!

Robbie McDonald
Baytown, TX

Thanks for a fun-tastic letter, Robbie! We agree, team-ups are fun—as we discovered when TOP DOG met HEATHCLIFF (TOP DOG #9), then ran into the famous SPIDER-MAN (TOP DOG #10), and when the DROIDS and EWOKS had a joint adventure (DROIDS #4, EWOKS #10). But getting such busy and popular characters together is complicated! Many of the characters you see in STAR Comics are represented by different companies. So, first our people talk to their people. Then their people talk to our people. And finally, when people are thoroughly tired of talking to each other, we discover everyone already has plans for next month!

(By the way, the Bears liked your drawings, Robbie, but they were a little confused. Real CARE BEARS usually come from Care-A-Lot, not Baytown, Texas!)

Dear CARE BEARS,

I love you. My daddy reads your comics to me all the time, and I enjoy them all. Issue #6 was very good.

I have seen both your movies, and I liked them both. My favorite CARE BEAR is Cheer Bear. I also like Swift Heart Rabbit. My little brother's favorites are Grumpy Bear and Bright Heart Raccoon.

My daddy helped me write this letter because I'm only 3 years old.

Lora Wilbur
Buena Park, CA

We read your letter to the Bears, Lora, and Cheer Bear sends you a special cheery thanks! Grumpy Bear said to tell your brother hello. At least, we think it was hello. It sounded like "Hmmmph!"—but we were almost positive we saw a little glimmer of a smile.

Dear Bear People,

I loved your last issue, CARE BEARS #6! I think you folks are doing a wonderful job on the art and stories for the CARE BEARS comics. Keep up the good work!

Yes, I did see the new CARE BEARS movie and I loved it! In fact, I saw it eight times! I couldn't get enough of it! The plot, animation, characters, and even the voices of the characters were outstanding! Oh yes, the music was well-written and sung.

My favorite characters are Friend Bear, Sunshine Bear, Birthday Bear and True Heart Bear. In the next "Bear Facts," will there be some facts about the Cousins? I like them as much as the bears themselves. Would you mention something about True Heart Bear and Noble Heart Horse, too? I'm trying to start a CARE BEARS fan club. If I do get the club going would you mention it in your comic book? Please?

Gotta run! Baby Hugs is in my care while Grams is shopping, and at this moment, she's run off. Bye!

Cathy Rivera

Wow! Gee! Thanks! What a fan!

At the moment, there are no stories underway about the Cousins, Noble Heart Horse or True Heart Bear, but we're always glad to hear your suggestions. We promise to keep them in mind.

And if you do start a fan club, Cathy, write back! We'd be glad to mention it here.

Dear S.T.A.R.,

Howard Post writes nice things. Tell him I said so.

I love all the CARE BEARS. Thank you!
Ava Toerock
New York City, NY

Thank you bear-y much, Ava, from all the CARE BEARS! We agree, Howard Post is a wonderful writer. Did you know he draws them, too? That's good luck for all of us, don't you think?
